

Where's my icon? getImage Function

This function accesses the image we are using to identify the options we chose to populate data in the local storage(items from drop down). The function passes the argument makeSubList because it would have been outside of scope.

